

Name _____

Geography

1. Why did certain cities settle where they did?
2. What are some specific geographical features to your state?
3. How does the physical location of your state affect its relationship with neighboring states?
Other countries?
4. What physical characteristics might have led various cultural groups to settle in your state?
5. How does human activity affect the physical geography?
6. How does the physical geography affect human activity?

Directions: Use the information from your research above to create a paragraph convincing people of the geographic benefits of your state to use in your commercial.

Works Cited:

Civics

1. What are some issues faced by your state government?
2. What are the differing points of view on one of these particular issues?
3. What are some of the individuals or organizations that have been important to the development of the government? Why are they important?
4. Why is your state constitution important to its residents?

Directions: Use the information from your research above to create a paragraph telling people of the strengths of your state government to use in your commercial.

[illegible]

Works Cited:

Economics

1. What are some goods and services that are unique to your state?
2. How has science and technology changed the economics of your state?
3. Why should tourists visit your state?

Directions: Use the information from your research above to create a paragraph informing people of the economic benefits of your state to use in your commercial.

Works Cited:

Draft of Commercial

Introduction (this should be a compelling statement about your state).

Geography

Civics

Economics

Closing Statement (End with a memorable statement to convince people to travel to your state)

Works Cited: